States in a War Over a Postmaster

WASHINGTON—It's hard enough to have constituents in any event, but it's much harder to have 'em for next door neighbors.

Representative Slemm is the only Republican member of the house from Virginia. This, is of course, a Republican administration. So when anybody in Virginia wants anything he comes to Slemm.

Just now Slemm is facing a problem in little. The town of Bristol is split between Virginia and Tennessee. Representative Brownlow of Tennessee, like Slemm, is the lone Republican from his state. White House influence is divided. For 40 years a Tennesseean has been postmaster of Bristol. Brownlow wants a Tennesseean to be postmaster. But the president has appointed a Virginian to the place. The appointment still lacks Senate sanction, so that Brownlow has not given up hope. Slemm is smiling for the reason that the Senate is not considering his man's name.

Question of Ethics Raised in House

Mr. SHERLEY was making a speech in the house several days ago when Representative Clayton arose and asked: "May I interrupt the gentleman?"

Mr. SHERLEY—Certainly.

Mr. Clayton—To say that the gentleman from Georgia was unavoidably taken away and is not present.

Mr. SHERLEY—I thought the gentleman wanted to ask me a question.

Mr. Clayton—I wanted to ask the gentleman—

Mr. SHERLEY—I would rather go on with my remarks but just ask the question.

Mr. Clayton—That is to say, does the gentleman think that any man who is falling circumstances goes to a man who has money, within four months of his failure, and says to him: "I am about to fail; I am in an embarrassed position; let me have a thousand dollars and I will prefer you." Do you think any sane man

Senator Burton and the Tobacco Habit

THE senate committee on commerce, of which Burton of Ohio is a member, was just about to begin its afternoon session. Senator Frye of Maine, chairman of the committee, sat at the head of the long table. Burton sat midway toward the end from Frye. Presently Burton pulled a cigar from his vest pocket. He lit it, rose and walked up the room toward Frye. Frye looked at him quizzically.

"Well, Burton," said the Maine senator, "I'm glad to see you have one vice."

Burton held his cigar between his thumb and forefinger like a boy learning to smoke.

"Ah, senator," he said, "I have many vices; I have many."

Frye only grinned a little at that. Burton came closer to him.

How Congressman's Secretary Got Help

SECRETARY HORN of the staff of Representative Gaines, is a Foxxy Queller. The other day he sent out invitations to a number of other secretaries for a lunch in his office of a certain night.

"Fine," said the surprised secretaries.

"I'll have a pretty girl for each of you," said Horn.

"Finner," said the secretaries.

He had the lunch and the girls. He had spent nearly six dollars, though some of the secretaries said afterwards that they had an idea that the girls had brought the lunch. It is not of record whether the lunch was eaten before or after Horn unfolded his little scheme.

In any event, before each secretary and each girl had left, they had ad-

HINDUS ALARMED AND ASTIR

Spread of Christianity Threatens Whole Structure of Hinduism With Overthrow.

Hinduism is awakening to the fact that if the great substrata of Hindu society known as the depressed classes be raised by Christianity, the whole structure of Hinduism is threatened with overthrow. This awakening is being followed by efforts in various parts for the improvement of these poor people. The latest is a movement in Ahmedabad. In that city, on August 29, a meeting was held at which the attendance of the depressed classes was encouraged and in which they were allowed to sit beside caste people. Resolutions were passed for the formation of a Central Hindu association, which should have for its objects the raising of the depressed classes and their readmission into Hinduism after being converts to foreign faiths. As to the means to be adopted for realizing these objects, the following suggestions were made: (a) Starting schools, clubs and associations; (b) establishing preaching missions; (c) publishing papers, periodicals, magazines and leaflets; (d) adopting such other means as may be conducive to the above objects.

NO HEALTHY SKIN LEFT

My little son, a boy of five, broke out with an itching rash. Three doctors prescribed for him, but he kept getting worse until we could not dress him any more. They finally advised me to try a certain medical college, but its treatment did no good. At the time I was induced to try Cuticura he was so bad that I had to cut his hair off and put the Cuticura Ointment on him on bandages, as it was impossible to touch him with the bare hand. There was not one square inch of skin on his whole body that was not affected. He was one mass of sores. The bandages used to stick to his skin and in removing them it used to take the skin off with them, and the screams from the poor child were heartbreaking. I began to think that he would never get well, but after the second application of Cuticura Ointment I began to see signs of improvement, and with the third and fourth applications the sores commenced to dry up. His skin peeled off twenty times, but it finally yielded to the treatment. Now I can say that he is entirely cured, and a stronger and healthier boy you never saw than he is to-day, twelve years or more since the cure was effected. Robert Wattam, 1148 Forty-eighth St., Chicago, Ill., Oct. 9, 1909.

Undesirable Acquisition.

A scientist who lost his pet dog put a little notice in the paper headed, "Warning," which charitably described the animal as having "strayed," and added:

"It is of no value, not even to the owner; but, having been experimented upon for scientific purposes with many virulent poisons, a lick from its tongue—and it is very affectionate—would probably prove fatal."

The dog came back next day.

WELL KIDNEYS KEEP THE BODY WELL.

When the kidneys do their duty, the blood is filtered clear of uric acid and other waste. Weak kidneys do not filter off all the bad matter. This is the cause of rheumatic pains, backache and urinary disorders. Doan's Kidney Pills cure weak kidneys.

Rev. A. B. Weaver, Georgetown, Tex., former editor Baptist Herald, says: "At a Baptist conference at Jackson, Tex., I fell from a platform and hurt my back. I was soon over the injury, but the kidneys were badly disordered, passages painful and often bloody. Doan's Kidney Pills cured this trouble completely."

Remember the name—Doan's. Sold by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. 50 cents a box.

Goaded.

Saving became a passion with the man and the woman. No privation was too great, if so be by it they might add to their accumulations. And they labored jointly. The woman's sacrifice was in every respect equal to that of the man.

But when they had amassed $10,000 the man, because he had the power, took the money and purchased with it, not the automobile which he had led his faithful wife to expect, but a home.

"Brute!" she cried, and when next a mob of suffragettes came that way she joined them. Who could blame her?—Puck.

Have You Tried?

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? We can furnish positive proof that it has made many remarkable cures after all other means had failed.

Women who are suffering with some form of female illness should consider this.

As such evidence read these two unsolicited testimonial letters. We guarantee they are genuine and honest statements of facts.

Cresson, Pa.—"Five years ago I had a bad fall, and hurt myself inwardly. I was under a doctor's care for nine weeks, and when I stopped I grew worse again. I sent for a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, took it as directed, and now I am a stout, hearty woman."—Mrs. Ella E. Aikay, Cresson, Pa.

Baird, Wash.—"A year ago I was sick with kidney and bladder troubles and female weakness. The doctors gave me up. All they could do was to just let me go as easily as possible. I was advised by friends to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier. I am completely cured of my ills, and I am nearly sixty years old."—Mrs. Sarah Leighton, Baird, Wash.

Evidence like the above is abundant showing that the derangements of the female organism which breed all kinds of miserable feelings and which ordinary practice does not cure, are the very disorders that give way to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Women who are afflicted with similar troubles, after reading two such letters as the above, should be encouraged to try this wonderfully helpful remedy.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

After The Grippe

"I am much pleased, to be able to write and thank you for what Cardui has done for me," writes Mrs. Sarah J. Gilliland, of Siler City, N. C.

"Last February, I had the Grippe, which left me in bad shape. Before that, I had been bothered with female trouble, for ten years, and nothing seemed to cure it.

"At last, I began to take Cardui. I have taken only three bottles, but it has done me more good than all the doctors or than any other medicine I ever took."

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

For the after-effects of any serious illness, like the Grip, Cardui is the best tonic you can use.
